1. Speaking Module Strategy and Master Templates

Core Principle: Clarity Over Speed

- Speak at a calm, natural, moderate pace.
- Take natural pauses at punctuation.
- Avoid self-correction, as it can reduce fluency.

Describe Image

Speak for about 35 seconds. Use approximate figures—for example, around 1,000 rather than 1,026—and focus on the image's most important features.

Response Template

1. The given image provides detailed information about [MAIN TOPIC].
2. Overall, it provides a clear overview of the information presented, especially [KEY FEATURE].
3. In addition, another important feature can be seen, which is [SECOND FEATURE].
4. The image also shows another significant point, which is [THIRD FEATURE].
5. Another important point is that the image shows [RELATIONSHIP / CHANGE / LOCATION / PROCESS].
6. Overall, the image highlights the main features of [MAIN TOPIC].

Reusable Language

Main Topic

- the number of people in different age groups
- changes in population
- the process of producing electricity
- the layout of a residential area
- different sources of energy
- a scientific structure
- a group of people in an outdoor setting

Key, Second, and Third Features

- Key feature: the highest figure; the largest category; an upward trend; the central area; the first stage; the main structure; the largest group of people
- Second feature: the lowest figure; categories with similar values; a clear difference between two groups; buildings on the left; the next stage; components connected to the main structure
- Third feature: another significant difference; a gradual increase; a noticeable decrease; smaller categories; objects in the background; the final stage

Relationships, Changes, Locations, and Processes

- Chart: The figure increases gradually over the period, or the two categories show a considerable difference.
- Table: The values vary across the categories.
- Process: The process moves through several connected stages.
- Map: The main features are distributed across different areas.
- Diagram: The components are connected to one another.
- Photograph: The people and objects are arranged around the main area.

Practice Examples

1. Bar chart: The image compares student numbers across different subjects. Overall, science has the highest figure, followed by English, while history has the lowest. The chart therefore shows considerable variation among the subjects.

2. Process: The image illustrates how electricity is produced. Overall, the process consists of several connected stages, beginning with the first input and ending with the final production stage.
3. Map: The image shows the layout of a residential area. Overall, the central road is the main feature, with several buildings and a green area distributed around it.
4. Photograph: The image shows a group of people in an outdoor setting. Overall, the people form the main focus, while several objects and background features complete the scene.

Grammar Reminder

Avoid: “while history has the lowest figure is also significant.”

Use: “while the lowest figure for history is also significant.”

Accurate sentence structure makes your response sound more natural and precise.

Core Sequence

introduce the topic → give an overview → describe the key feature → add supporting features → explain a relationship or process → conclude

Retell Lecture

Speak for ~35 seconds using structured connectors.

Template:

1. The lecture was about [Main Topic].
2. Firstly, the speaker mentioned that [Main Idea 1].
3. Furthermore, the speaker highlighted the importance of [Main Idea 2].
4. Moreover, the lecture explained details regarding [Main Idea 3].
5. In conclusion, the lecture provided key insights into [Main Topic Summary].

Summarize Group Discussion

Speak for 90–120 seconds. Take notes in 3 columns (1 per speaker).

Template:

1. The discussion here was about [Main Topic].
2. The first speaker mentioned that [Point 1].
3. She/He furthermore added that [Point 2].
4. He also highlighted that [Point 3].
5. However, after this, the second speaker mentioned that [Point 1].
6. He explained that [Point 2].
7. He also noted that [Point 3].
8. The third speaker in the discussion suggested that [Point 1].
9. He also added that [Point 2].
10. Overall, the discussion was about [Main Topic Summary].

Most Important Grammar Rule

When completing the bracketed sections, use the correct grammar type:

[NOUN]

- Technology
- social media
- online education
- environmental protection

[GERUND]

- reducing costs
- improving communication
- increasing productivity
- protecting the environment

[S + V]

- students can access information easily
- people spend more time online
- companies reduce their operating costs

The template follows this simple sequence:

NOUN → NOUN/GERUND → S+V → NOUN/GERUND → S+V

3. Reading Module Strategy and Grammar Rules

Time Allocation

- Drop-down & Drag-and-Drop Blanks: 1.5–2 minutes per passage.
- Reorder Paragraphs: Max 2 minutes per question.
- MCQs: Max 30–40 seconds (do not waste time).

Grammar Rules for Fill-in-the-Blanks

1. `To` + V1 (Base verb)
2. Modals (`can/could/should/will/would/may/must`) + V1
3. `Has/Have/Had` + V3
5. Articles `A/An` + Singular Noun
6. Article `The` + Noun
7. `The` + [Blank] + `of` → Noun
8. Possessive pronouns (`its/their/his/her/my/our`) + Noun
9. `A/An/The` + [Blank] + Noun → Adjective
10. `More/Most/Very/Highly/Increasingly` + Adjective
11. `Has/Is/Was` + [Blank] + Verb → Adverb (`-ly`)
12. Prepositions (`in/of/for/by/with/about`) + Noun / V-ing
14. Preposition Collocations (depend on, consist of, account for, contribute to, result in)
15. Subject-Verb Agreement (True subject drives verb ending `-s` vs. no `-s`)
16. Parallelism with `And / Or`
17. `Many / Several / Few` + Plural Countable Noun (`-s`)
19. `Which / That` + Singular Verb (`-s`) if antecedent is singular

Reorder Paragraph Rules

- Scores are earned per correct adjacent pair, not absolute position.
- Stranger Test: Independent opener with no unIntroduced pronouns or transition words.
- Article progression: `A/An` before `The`.
- Conclusive indicators: `therefore`, `ultimately`, `consequently` placed at/near the end.

4. Listening Module Strategy and Techniques

Summarize Spoken Text

- Length: 50–70 words (target ~65 words). 10-minute non-rollover timer.
- 5-Sentence Template:
  1. `[Topic Name] was the main topic of the lecture.`
  2. `Firstly, [Main Idea 1].`
  3. `Furthermore, [Main Idea 2].`
  5. `To conclude, [Summary Statement].`
- Important: Capitalize all proper nouns, such as Medicare, Congress, and Social Security Act.

Write from Dictation

- Variation Strategy: Include plausible spelling or grammar alternatives when appropriate, such as a/the or boy/boys.
- Capitalization: Always capitalize proper nouns (months, days, countries, legislation).
- Timing: Spend no more than 1 minute per sentence to avoid running out of time at the end of the Listening section.

Highlight Incorrect Words

Highlight Incorrect Words (13% Reading, 13% Listening)

- Move the cursor along with the audio. Negative marking applies—do NOT guess uncertain words.
